Let's Chat!

HARBORLIGHTCHAIR@HACOAA.ORG

Welcome to summer time in the beautiful Harbor Area! It is a great time to be sober. While many of us look forward to the summer events our groups put on during this time of year, and we are sad to have those canceled this year, we can still find great joy as members of Alcoholics Anonymous. Whether it be through virtual AA events, having newfound time to chat with other members and newcomers, or getting the chance to check out the Harbor Light, we are finding ways to stay connected. While I certainly miss seeing the smiles of all of my friends, shaking hands, and enjoying coffee, I'm feeling grateful that technology has allowed us to remain in touch. The coolest thing about our new virtual meetings is that we get to have members from all over the world attend our meetings, especially our friends that have moved away and we miss so much!

I'm looking forward to our slow transition back to "normal," but in the meantime, I'm working extra hard on my gratitude. Please send me an email and let me know how you're staying positive!

Step 6

By John J.

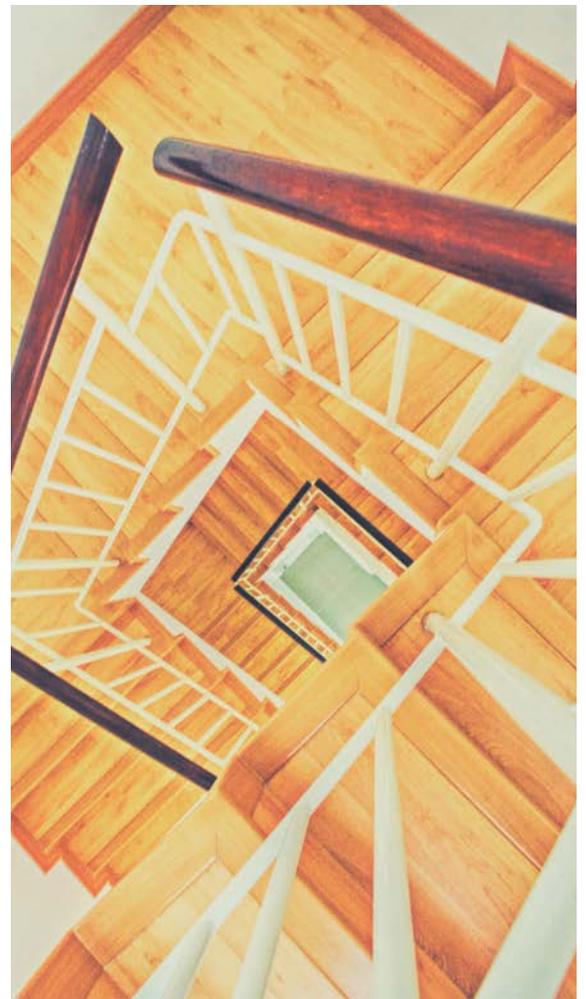

I found myself at 3 years sober sitting in a Starbucks in Sunset Beach. Across from me was my sponsor Joe P. of Huntington Beach. A kinder, more non-judgmental human I had yet to come across. I was comfortable and sure his guidance could only lead me into a path of spiritual growth. He asked if I felt ready to move forward. He asked me if I was strong enough to let go of my old self and to begin to see the possibility of accepting things about myself that I thought were the basis of what defined me. There was no ah-ha moment when I realized my defects of character were not limited to the drink, but to the way I treated myself and those who loved me. It seemed the more I dug, the more I came up with, and as I brought these to Joe's attention, he just smiled and offered no opinions on the matter. I continued to dig and finally insisted on an opinion. He finally stopped smiling and told me, "We have an ability to heal our thoughts and actions if we ask so from our heart not our head". I'm not a big prayer and meditation guy so I spent more time figuring out how to ask than I should have and poured over the steps 4 and 5 looking for an easy answer to step 6. I drove back from yet another meeting at Starbucks looking for answers I was never given. I found myself resentful for the lack of what I thought was an un-insightful meeting with a sponsor who was ignoring me. I returned home and thought about a new sponsor, new home group, a new set of program standards to fit my personal needs. It was then I was faced with my defects, and like a tsunami, they hit me. I needed to get this off my soul. It was then I found the wisdom in the way Joe allowed me to see for myself the defects and not to have them pointed out to me. I called to thank Joe, then sat quietly on the beach and asked God to remove my defects of character.

Written in fond memory of Joe P. of Huntington Beach for the kindness and compassion displayed to those who suffer from alcoholism.

"Were entirely ready to have God remove all those defects of character."

My name is Jerry B, and I am an alcoholic. I didn't want to be an alcoholic. I grew up in an alcoholic household. My father was an alcoholic and a raging person and it always frightened me. At the age of 10 or 11, I distinctly remember telling God I did not want to be like that when I grow up. I joined the army. Did my three years in the army, got to France, and was able to be a sophisticated wino. I know that because I was in the gutter in Paris and they just swept around me. I got out of the army and my father had joined AA and when you're 21 and you're drinking, you will never be that smart again in all your life. My thinking was that I would take my father to those A and A meetings that he goes to and I would keep him sober because he was going pay my bills to rest of my life.

My father wanted me to get involved. He was central office leader. I went to one of the meetings and the discussion was should we put a phone in central office? And the fight was just unreal. The people were saying; 'I answered that ad in the newspaper, and I sweated it out for three days and these new drunks can do the same thing if they're serious. We don't need a damn phone.' And I then understood how crazy people in AA are. So, I joined the air force and that's one of the reasons why I don't want to drink today because if I started drinking today, I'll be a Navy seal next week.

There was an ad in the advocate paper in 1969 and it said, if you're a friend of Bill W's, call this number.

This time I wound up in San Francisco and I was going to some meetings and some people took an interest in me. It turns out that the people that were helping me were three gay guys. My secret had to come out that I was gay. So, since I'm gay, I ought to be a movie star. I got to Hollywood and I thought that I would sleep my way to stardom. There was an ad in the advocate paper in 1969 and it said, if you're a friend of Bill W's, call this number. So, I called the number and five other guys got together and we met. That was the first gay meeting in Southern California than I am aware of. Eventually the Mary Lind Foundation gave us a room. We then went to central office and said; 'we want to list the meeting in the book, and we want a G in it.' They said no. So, we formed what was to be Alcoholics Together (AT). We were so frightened that straight people would come in. The atmosphere at, at, at that time was just so tense that if you are perceived as gay, you could be beat up. You could lose your job. AT grew to over 200 people and we had 20 meetings in a week and, and so central office came to us and said, would you join us? We'll put a G in the book. So, AT as an entity was dissolved. I moved to Long Beach in 1993. We had gay meetings and we had straight meetings in the beginning in the mix. It's hard to wrap your head around this new camaraderie. This new feeling of acceptance. If you've lived through the fifties in the 60s where you were beat up and ostracized so bad . . . my life today is comfortable. My life today is full. My life today is one of giving the gratitude I have for this program because I know that the kind of drinking, I did and the skid row thing, that had to be a screw loose someplace. Had it not been for AA teaching me how to live one day at a time without taking a drink, I would never have what I have.

In Memory of Karen B.

19xx-2020

An AA member that spent her sober life dedicated to serving the Harbor Area.

I met Karen when I was 3 years sober through the Harbor Area Service Committee. She became my sponsor very shortly after we met because I realized that I wanted what she had: the ability to find happiness and kindness in the face of the cruelest of circumstances. Her composure during difficult times and her ability set aside her selfishness for any alcoholic seeking recovery intrigued me. I wanted to understand how to act with kindness even though I was surrounded by very difficult personalities. She started by telling me the truth whether I wanted to know it or not because she wanted me to be a recovered alcoholic, not a dry one. She threw dictionaries at me with love when I started acting like a know it all because I frequently misunderstood things. But above all she taught me how to take commitments, kept commitments, immerse myself with service with and fill in the gaps wherever I'm needed. As we all know, those gaps are frequently in the Program Committee. For anyone who has ever participated on the HASC level, you will most likely giggle because you have seen first hand how hard that Program Chair works to make events successful. It is through the Program Committee that I learned business skills that have promoted me to executive level management. I was able to put aside my quality problems and focus on helping the greater good of alcoholics, even if it was just for an hour during a Program Committee meeting. I learned how to handle stress and hold composure; I sure as heck was not going to make amends to any Bleeding Deacons on the committee. Harbor Area Service Committee changes my life in the best ways possible. Karen Bierman was a huge part of that. She did many thankless things for people. She was frequently the person in the background doing the dirty work so we would all have a safe place to recover. She was a true example of humility and always remembered her primary purpose. It was an honor to have had her as a sponsor, a service committee partner and a friend. Karen, thank you for everything. You were more important that you could ever comprehend and you will be missed.

-Mary K

From her sponsor

KAlcoholics Anonymous was the “breath” of Karen Bierman. It was her “heart beat.” Those who knew her were aware of her devotion to A.A. and her passion for helping the down and out. My regret is that the last time we said goodbye, I didn’t know it was our final goodbye on this earth. I will always remember Karen participating in our Zoom Sponsor Meeting on Sunday June seventh of this year. She was vibrant and smiling. Karen, I wish you freedom, peace and happiness. Freedom from trying to help everybody. Now that you are in the Big A.A. Meeting in the sky, let God take care of other people and let your Higher Power take care of you. So long for now Karen, and please save me a seat on the first row.

Love Sponsor Barbara.

Emails with an Old Timer

From Eric B.

The following is an email exchange between me and my grand sponsor, Dr. Steve S. who has 45 years of sobriety.

Me - You often speak of the alcoholic not being able to form a connection with another human. Where does that come from? I repeat it often to clients and guys I sponsor and would like to know where to source it.

Dr. Steve - The theme of loneliness, differentness, or sense of separation/separateness appears throughout our two books. The huge "concordance" of all words used in the Big Book (based upon 3d edition) the word loneliness, lonely, or lonesome cumulatively appear 25 times in the main text and stories. However, I believe the 12 & 12 was published in the early 1950s specifically to underscore the importance of moving beyond physical sobriety to what Bill W. called "Emotional Sobriety" in a widely quoted Grapevine article in the 50s.

BEFORE THE MIRACLE
HAPPENS

Art by Alex E. @aveletters

By that time many AAs, including Bill W himself had long-term sobriety and were still experience emotional imbalance and depression attendant with the "emotional immaturity" described by Dr. Jellinek when he studied us in the 40s. The 12 & 12 deals much more specifically with "relationships" etc., with the 4th and 12th steps being wonderful guides to healthy relationships. My two favorite 12 & 12 passages describing dis-connection as I experience it even sometimes today are:

53: The entire 1st paragraph worth absorbing, but my favorite lines, "The primary fact we fail to recognize is our total inability to form a true partnership with another human being. Our egomania digs two disastrous pitfalls. Either we insist on dominating the people we know, or we depend on them far too much...We have not once sought to be one in a family, to be a friend among friends, to be a worker among workers, to be a useful member of society."

p57: "Even before our drinking got bad and people began to cut us off, nearly all of us suffered the feeling that we didn't quite belong. Either we were shy and did not dare draw near others or we were apt to be noisy goodfellows craving attention and companionship, but never getting it, at least to our way of thinking. THERE WAS ALWAYS THAT MYSTERIOUS BARRIER WE COULD NEITHER SURMOUNT NOR UNDERSTAND!"

This dichotomy of alternating DOMINANCE/DEPENDENCE driven by our egos (which in the way we use the word is inversely proportional to our "self-esteem") poisons all of our relationships.

Anyway, that's a start on one of my favorite subjects.

Points out that this is an unusual time for AA

Concerned

regarding virtual meetings while some are hosted on our website some are private.

Passwords

are in use and very helpful for staying connected safely.

Chris

I. questions why passwords for virtual meetings are not hosted on our website.

Gerry

W. says that some meetings voted not to post
passwords online because a Friday meeting got bombed per group conscience. Brad S.
and Rosa P. acknowledge that same issue from some within our

Fellowship

who cannot access passwords for their meetings while others are just not tech
savvy enough, and are reaching out for assistance. Brad
S. asks if we can let those that want to access a meeting can they call the Central Office request a password, and someone from Central Office could call them back.

Sue

T. says she has been referring some callers to specific meetings with a list of passwords she has been given or developed out of necessity. Rosa P. says all voice messages for these, and other such requests are usually answered the same day. Brad S. closes with this note: he has found and uses an on-line table for access issues such as these and found a drop-down
table which hosts passwords.

copies that are still being mailed the old fashioned way, but would like to discuss subscriptions, looking for a simpler way to subscribe.

Website Chair: Matthew L

Mathew L. shares that considers this (Email listing for Harbor Light) as a plausible action item.

Suggest we consider using something like Mail Chimp.

Rosa P. expresses concern

about the use of Mail Chimp as it has some access button difficulties.

Kristin asks if we should

vote on the development of such an idea such as Mail Chimp.

Rosa suggests that this is just an idea for now checking if we can expand our current email address

capability (info@HACOAA.org)

Sue T. Brings up an issue of security for our email's.

Rosa P. adds that mail

chimp does answer a lot of our security concerns.

Kristin would like to put

this idea in the Harbor Light.

Shannon adds that a lot of our members including her would like to read the

Harbor Light including

herself.
